

FISCAL NOTE

HB 603 - SB 620

March 31, 2003

SUMMARY OF BILL:

- Reduces the time period from 90 days to 60 days for notifying the appointing authority in writing when a vacancy occurs on the Water Quality Board and requires that all vacancies are to be filled within 60 days instead of the current 90 days.
- Specifies that if a vacancy goes for more than 120 days instead of the current 180 days, a report is to be given to the House and Senate Government Operations Committee with reasons for the vacancies.
- Reduces from 180 days to 120 days that positions on the board can be vacant before termination of the Water Quality Control Board would begin.
